FURTHER SOUTH.

Last Day at Atlanta Marred by a Drenching Rain.

A President Reviewed Under an Umbrella.

Receptions in the Evening Especially Brilliant.

The Tour Continued Still Further Into the South.

The Presidential Tour.

ATLANTA, October 19.—The day was very disagreeable. President and Mrs Cleveland [illegible] made their way through the road to the exposition grounds. The [illegible] brought up in front of the grand stand, where it was intended the distinguished party should alight, but the president after considering the weather decided not to venture. There was a delay of one mortal hour before anything happened, although several feeble attempts were made to start the procession. The procession came marching [illegible] by in the rain, the president standing up in his carriage with an umbrella to review them. When the column had [illegible] the carriage was with some difficulty extricated from the soil and the proposed military reception having been abandoned the party returned to town.

In the evening the president was entertained by Hon. Julius Brown, son of Senator Brown. At the same hour the most magnificent entertainment given Mrs Cleveland on the trip was provided by Mrs Henry W. Grady. For two hours the ladies of the city called there and paid their respects to the president's wife. In the evening a general public reception was given at the mansion by Governor and Mrs Gordon.

The great event of the day was a torchlight procession of the Young Men's Democratic league of the state. A drenching rain was falling, but that did not dampen the ardor of enthusiasm which thronged the streets with flaming torches. The president left at midnight for Montg[illegible]

Natural Gas Expl[illegible]

PITTSBURG, October 19.—The first serious natural gas explosion in this city in two years occurred this morning in the Hotel Albemarle and Bijou theatre block. The explosion was attended with frightful injuries to a number of people and great destruction to some of the finest property in the city. The concussion shook buildings for squares, and broke every plate glass window in the block. Almost instantly flames shot up from various parts of the block, but before they gained much headway were controlled by prompt action of the fire department. Eight persons were seriously hurt, some of them fatally. At least as many are seriously hurt.

Gould's Defense.

NEW YORK, October 19.—Concerning the $15,000,000 suit against Jay Gould, his attorney, Judge Dillon said to a reporter to-day: "There is nothing new in this whole matter, but every fact on which this action is brought has been known for years. The railway company and Mr Gould and Sage, the trustees, [illegible] was done was not only in accordance with the law but [illegible] interest of the company and [illegible] proved. In fact, the securities of the Kansas Pacific bond were greatly strengthened and increased by what was done. So far as Mr Gould was concerned he owned personally one-half of Denver Pacific stock in his own right, which he turned in to the consolidation at ten cents on the dollar. This suit is brought upon the idea that as trustee he must account on the basis that Denver Pacific stock was worth par when he actually sold his own stock for 10 per cent on the dollar. Investigation before the Pacific railway commission showed that every share of Denver Pacific stock of which complaint is made became an asset of the Kansas Pacific and went into the consolidation [illegible] entire benefit thereof, and that the charge made in the complaint on which the suit is based that Messrs Gould and Sage or any of the directors of the Union Pacific converted Denver Pacific stock or its proceeds to their own use is a mistake."

English Tr[illegible]

MANCHESTER, October 19.—The Guardian's commercial article says: Business in a few departments is moderate but perhaps reaches the average. Firmness and confidence prevail. Calcutta enquiry is slack, but the demand from China and Bombay is moderate. Export yarns are firm. The position of spinners is strong, although the demand is weak. Enquiry from Japan, China and India has subsided. Sales of cloth are light but prices are steady. Best China shirting is strong and will contract. Early delivery is impossible. [illegible] and common easier, though firm. Some inquiry exists for jaconets, mulls and dhooties for Bombay. Best printers firm, with good business [illegible] dium and lower reeds are quiet, with moderate demand for the better makes. China and Mexican T-cloths are rather more actively sought for, other heavy goods quiet but steady. Sales small.

The Seized Sealers.

OTTAWA, Ont., October 19.—A dispatch from Secretary Bayard to the imperial government has been received here in which Bayard expresses regret that orders for the release of Canadian [illegible] seized in the Behring sea were not obeyed by officials at Sitka and stating that fresh orders for their release had been given.

WASHINGTON, October 19.—Secretary Bayard said to-day that he has expressed regret at the delay in releasing the sealers, not to "the imperial government" but to the British minister in Washington. The text of his communication will not be given out, but the president's orders for the release of the se[illegible] have been sent to Alaska.

Boulanger and Katkoff.

LONDON, October 19.—The Paris correspondent of the Daily Chronicle learns that the late M. Katkoff and General Boulanger were in close communication

[illegible]

Pitchers—Conway and King.
Base hits—Detroits 6, St. Louis [illegible]
Errors—Detroits [illegible], St. Louis 2.
Umpires—Kelly and Gaffney.

St. Louis [illegible] and one [illegible] Detroit [illegible] White's great work on third were the only particularly good points of the playing [illegible]

Western Union Rates.

NEW YORK, October 19.—The Tribune this morning printed a statement that the Western Union had discharged several hundred B. & O. operators, dispensing with their services, and would immediately push rates up. Dr Green said this afternoon: "Western Union rates have not been advanced, but on the contrary we have to-day been considering some very sweeping reductions which it is proposed to make. There is not a word of truth in the statement that 200 B. and O. employes had been [illegible] There will [illegible] I don't suppose we shall [illegible] operator except for [illegible] A few clerks may be dispensed with."

Western Union Rates.

NEW YORK, October 19.—The following was adopted at a meeting of the executive committee of the Western Union to-day:

Resolved, That no advance in rates heretofore charged by this company be made except in the cases of ten and fifteen cent rates between points where the handling of business at these rates has made an absolute loss, and be it further

Resolved, That officials of the company be empowered and directed to reduce [illegible] old be made.

NEW YORK, October 19.—The Times states that the Western Union Telegraph Co. yesterday notified over 2000 employes of the B. & O. Telegraph Co. that their services would not be required after November 1. The old B. & O. rate of 15 cents for 10 words from New York to Chicago was raised to 30 cents.

[illegible] Cong[illegible]

LOUISVILLE, Ky., October 19.—The second day's session of the Protestant Episcopal church congress opened with a largely increased attendance. Bishop Dudley read the opening prayer. The topic discussed in the day session was "The Higher Education of Women."

At the night session the most important discussion of the congress took place, the topic being a proposal to change the name of the Church. The [illegible] several delegates, was very spirited and was about evenly divided as to change. The speakers generally denounced the proposal to use in any way the word "catholic" in case any change was made.

A Horse Transaction.

DENVER, October 19.—A few days ago C. L. Carmody, a genteel looking young [illegible] the livery men of this city, presumably for a few miles drive in the country. He [illegible] never returned, and to-day officers learned that he had gone to Colorado [illegible] and horses for sale. Detective Hinton this afternoon went to the Springs to make an effort to get the property, and if possible further trace of the man.

Agricultural Organization.

W[illegible] convention [illegible] A permanent organization was effected by the adoption of a constitution providing for and prescribing the duties of the president, five vice presidents, secretary and treasurer and an executive committee. The name adopted is "The American Association of State Agricultural Colleges and Experiment Stations." To the annual conventions of [illegible] entitled to send one delegate.

A Fearful Death.

LINCOLN, Neb., October 19.—On the B. and M. road about four miles from this city, this morning two freight trains collided. The wreck took fire and both engines and seventeen loaded cars were burned. Brakeman Isaac Davenport was caught in the wreck, and in order to release him to prevent cremation a fellow trainman seized an axe and chopped off his imprisoned leg. He was badly crushed and lived but a few hours. No others were injured.

Bankers Indicted.

CINCINNATI, October 19.—An evening paper says the United States court grand jury in session here has found numerous indictments against ex-President E. L. Harper, from seven to ten indictments against Benj. E. Hopkins, and as many against Ammi Baldwin, seven [illegible] against Miss Josie Holmes, Harper's private secretary, in the Fidelity bank. It also says that J. J. Wiltshire and two other bankers are indicted.

Friends of the Anarchists.

NEW YORK, October 19.—A call for a mass meeting next Monday night to protest against the execution of the Chicago anarchists is being widely distributed. The call emanates from the Central Labor union and district assembly No. 49 K. of L. Roscoe Conkling and Rev. Dr. Talmage have been invited to address the meeting.

Prosperous Mormons.

OTTAWA, October 19.—Advices received here indicate that the Mormon colony that settled at Lee's creek, at Lethbridge, N. W. T., is in a prosperous state. A recent visitor there states that the followers of Joe Smith have made more progress in a few months than other settlers in as many years.

Vanderbilt Victorious.

PITTSBURG, October 19.—In the case of Cornelius Vanderbilt against the Pittsburg and Lake Erie railway to-day, it was decided that the trust deed was invalid. The decision gives Vanderbilt control of the road and takes it out of the hands of the trustees.

ORGANIZED LABOR.

The Knights' Assembly Takes Its Final Adjournment.

All Business Before It Successfully Accomplished.

Carrying of Red Flags in Processions Forbidden.

Locomotive Engineers in Convention At Chicago.

The Knights' Assembly.

MINNEAPOLIS, October 19.—The general assembly Knights of Labor concluded its session all day, only taking adjournment at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. All business [illegible] The eleventh assembly has a record of accomplishing more than any of its predecessors. Many of the delegates left for home by evening trains, but a number, including the general officers, will remain in the city for a day or so. Among the events of a number of documents passed upon to-day, rather the most important was a resolution granting cigar makers, who belong to the Cigar Makers' International union, which was expelled by action of the Richmond convention, the privilege of reinstatement without payment of dues. This is in accordance with Powderly's recommendation in his report.

The session was opened this morning with additional reports from the committee on laws. A recommendation that the [illegible] of a co-operative fund be made optional with locals was adopted, as also was one that there be no change in the management of the Journal. Further action provides that the general executive board shall have nothing to do with strikes unless called upon to interfere by the district assemblies or national trades assemblies involved. Assemblies desiring new rituals must return old copies before receiving the new.

The anarchistic element received another back set when the assembly resolved by a vote of 112 to 29 that Knights of Labor in parade shall carry nothing but the state or national colors. There can be no more red flags in Knights of Labor parades.

An attempt to prevent Mr Powderly's further activity in the order in event of his resignation was frustrated when the assembly refused to accept a proposition to strike out the section which provides that "a past general master workman shall have all the rights and privileges of a representative."

The rule prohibiting the sale of liquors at picnics was sustained against a motion to change by a vote of 104 to 49. Hereafter organizers must pay dues in advance for the time of their commissions, and locals must not propose and initiate candidates for membership on the same night. A week must intervene.

The committee recommended that the general master workman be authorized to appoint a member of the order in England to take charge of affairs as requested in a letter from district assembly [illegible] of England, received some days ago.

Documents providing for making the state assembly the highest authority in its jurisdiction except in trade matters; asking the rejection of the new constitution, calling for abolition of the state assembly and suggesting plans for [illegible] ing it a political party were rejected.

After adopting its recommendations that the date of meeting of the assembly be changed to Tuesday after the second Monday of November of each year, the [illegible] law.

The committee on appeals and grievances [illegible] the charges [illegible] general secretary Litchman as groundless.

In the case of district assembly 126 the committee could make no suggestions, offering as an excuse that John Morrison had brought two valises of evidence and [illegible] half a ton. There was too much for it to grapple with. A motion to refer to an arbitration committee of three did not meet with favor, an amendment to the effect that district assembly 126 be reinstated upon complying with the laws of the order was passed. This leaves the matter just where it was before.

It was moved to provide for granting charters to Chinese assemblies, but the measure was lost, it being regarded as detrimental to the order in the west.

Complaints were introduced against the [illegible], the alleged labor paper of Troy, N. Y., by New York delegates who charged it with having made scurrilous attacks upon them, and its name was ordered withdrawn from the list of papers endorsed by the Journal.

A report from the committee on finance recommended economy for the coming year.

The invitation from Indianapolis was accepted, and the convention will be held in that city next year. Among other resolutions adopted in quick succession was one authorizing the executive board to defend members of district assembly 10 now under arrest at the instigation of the Old Dominion Steamship company.

The feeling among a majority of delegates to the assembly is that the general results of the present session are most gratifying. While there have been lively fights over several matters, the organization is as strong as ever, and legislation [illegible] enacted which will be of great value to the order in the future.

Mr Powderly said: "In a nutshell, I think the legislation passed at the present session will be greatly beneficial to the organization. A good many important changes in the constitution have been made. Poorer features have been abolished, and the amendments adopted will [illegible]

Convention of Locomotive Engineers.

[illegible] Arthur [illegible]

Perhaps in no other country [illegible] Arthur went on to say the [illegible] showed that during the fiscal year [illegible] paid to widows and orphans. [illegible] After further statistics [illegible] all things considered [illegible] both to ourselves and with various [illegible] brotherhood men are [illegible] When we consider the dissatisfaction which is everywhere manifest [illegible] more clearly defined is the line [illegible] the man who [illegible] can rise to a higher [illegible] and the [illegible] scarcely able to speak the English language, seeks to win his own comfortable living from those who have worked for it, preaching upon their imagination and arousing false hopes in the hearts of those who are still more ignorant than himself. Among sensible men the day for all this is past. In closing he urged upon them the necessity of abstaining from everything that would in the slightest degree impair their usefulness as citizens or their efficiency as locomotive engineers.

[illegible] Views.

WASHINGTON, October 19.—Civil Service Commissioner Edgerton, who returned to the city to-day, was asked by an associated press reporter if his views agreed with those of Commissioner Oberly, as expressed in his recent letter to the Illinois Democratic association. "They certainly do not," said Mr. Edgerton. "I do not believe in an extreme or strained construction of the civil service law. These state organizations have as much right to exist as they ever had. There is nothing in the law to prohibit it. [illegible] citizenship because he holds public office, and I think the idea that a man should abandon his residence in a state or his citizenship when he takes office in Washington is preposterous. The legislative power is above us all, and if the law is to be applied so as to deprive men of their rights as citizens, the danger is that a demand will be made upon the legislative power to [illegible]. There is no necessity for anything of the sort. [illegible] be construed in accordance with common sense and practical experience."

"No, sir," he continued, "I do not agree with Commissioner Oberly and I do not see how he is going to reconcile his present views with those expressed in the [illegible] report signed by Commissioners Oberly and Lyman. In that report they said if Mr. Webster, the [illegible] clerk, held strong political views [illegible] and during the time he held a place it was his right to at all proper times strongly express those views. [illegible] civil service, he must therefore surrender his right to take an interest in the politics of the country. No good citizen will do so, and no degree of severity in efforts to advance the interests of the [illegible]

"Now, if the commission [illegible] right and commendable in Mr. Webster [illegible] publicly to entertain political views [illegible] proper times to give strong expression to those views, why is it denied to democrats to entertain views in support of the administration and at proper times to give strong expression to them? No, sir, this position is untenable, and I take issue with it."

The Mormon Church Case.

SALT LAKE, October 19.—Argument began to-day in the Mormon church cases on a motion to appoint a receiver. A stipulation of the facts was submitted as agreed on by the opposing counsel, showing that John Taylor last February conveyed to the different stake presidents the personal property of the church located in the several counties, valued at $26,866.29, that the church has remaining only the Temple block in this city, valued at $150,000, the Tithing block here, $40,000, Amelia palace $50,000. But the receiver should he be appointed is not limited in his search for property to the items specified herein. It is further claimed by the church that the Mormon church corporation dissolved at the April conference 1887. The body of the church appointed three trustees, W. B. Preston, presiding bishop, with counsellors Robt. T. Burton and John R. Winder, to take charge of such property as the church was not allowed to hold. The arguments will last two or three days.

[illegible] Thousand Discharged.

PHILADELPHIA, October 19.—By order of shoemakers' assembly No. 70 five thousand hands engaged in the manufacture of shoes quit work to-day and 21 factories paid off their hands and closed their doors. This means that the situation was not looked upon by manufacturers as a strike but as a discharge.

Statue to Lincoln.

CHICAGO, October 19.—The statue of Abraham Lincoln which is to ornament the southern entrance to Lincoln Park was placed in its permanent position this morning. The statue, which will be one of the most artistic ornaments of the city, is the gift of the late Eli Bates, a long time resident of Chicago. It will be unveiled and formally presented to the people on Saturday afternoon.

ENGLISH LIBERALS.

The Liberal Federation in Session at Nottingham.

Gladstone Sketches the Programme of His Party.

He Declines to be Bound by Definite Proposals.

Issues Waiting Settlement of the Irish Question.

Gladstone's Conviction.

LONDON, October 19.—Mr. Gladstone [illegible] at Nottingham [illegible] crowded [illegible] Mr Gladstone [illegible] that the [illegible] liberal [illegible] work of the liberal party [illegible] Prince of Peace would recognize and bless their efforts. They ought to unite [illegible] Nonconformists [illegible] If the Protestant cause was the cause of reason, truth and justice, they would [illegible] follow the Protestant cause. [Prolonged cheers.]

The Liberal Federation.

LONDON, October 19.—The congress of the Liberal Federation at Nottingham to-day resolved unanimously that when the Irish question was settled disestablishment of the church in Wales should be made the leading point of policy of the liberal party. The congress also adopted a resolution in favor of reform of the franchise, so that one man shall have only one vote. It was decided to hold a meeting of the federation at an early day in Ireland.

[illegible]

NOTTINGHAM, October 19.—This evening Gladstone said he would boldly sweep away the law of [illegible] He [illegible] condemned revival of the phantasy of protection. He urged extension of the local government in the direction of decentralization but said that these, together with the questions of liquor traffic and disestablishment of the church in Scotland and Wales could not be touched until a settlement had been effected in regard to Ireland.

Continuing Mr. Gladstone said it was sometimes thought that he should [illegible] himself and as far as he could his friends [illegible] time to be so bound, in determining the precise manner in which all the principal enactments in his future bill for the government of Ireland should be framed. He was not [illegible] and did not intend to so bind himself [illegible] He endeavored to [illegible] and he was [illegible] within [illegible] He had said regarding any important subjects, the [illegible] connected with what would not allow the [illegible] of any proposals, that he would not be a party to making any proposal upon [illegible] impede the settlement of a great question provided that settlement was [illegible] with the conditions originally laid down and was not a fraud upon the people, and provided that Ireland accepted it [illegible] Ireland's [illegible]

Provided the settlement does nothing to impair, but rather to strengthen and consolidate the unity of the empire, continued Gladstone, and provided [illegible] Westminster [illegible] Irish [illegible] and here let me observe [illegible] no power ever was [illegible] and that there [illegible] to delegate power [illegible] the mode of [illegible] Each [illegible] changed for a system that is Irish [illegible] national in spirit. To all of these [illegible] the declaration I have made [illegible] and rely upon it, you [illegible] nor any differences of mine will upon these points stand in the way of the settlement desired by the two countries. [Cheers.]

Referring to the desire of the [illegible] that the imperial parliament [illegible] power [illegible] Mr Gladstone said that such power [illegible] because he knew that the possession of such power would [illegible] he devoutly hoped and prayed that it would never be used in the wanton [illegible] of tyranny [illegible] Irishmen [illegible] power [illegible] in the magnanimity of the [illegible] and their representatives.

London's Hungry Mob.

LONDON, October 19.—A mob [illegible] sallied from Hyde Park [illegible] followed by a force of 150 [illegible] this afternoon [illegible] Berkeley square [illegible] and scattered it. The mob again [illegible] and proceeded along Piccadilly, where the police [illegible] sharp fight took place. Several persons were injured and some rioters were taken into custody.

Criminal Charges.

NEW YORK, October 19.—[illegible] for the gentlemen who have [illegible] against Jay Gould and Russell Sage for $15,000,000 [illegible] will also be begun against Gould and Sage, and to the end he requested the Pacific railway investigating committee to furnish him with a record of the proceedings of the committee, but was refused on the ground that the committee had no authority to do so.

Behind in His Accounts.

CINCINNATI, October 19.—P. R. Warman of this city, formerly [illegible] of the Cincinnati Commercial agency, has disappeared. A receiver for the concern was applied for to-day. It is said that Warman is behind in his accounts at various places for a considerable amount, and it is believed he is insane.

The committee respectfully recommend that the [illegible] primaries on Saturday, October 15th, 1887, at 1 o'clock p. m.

A. A. McGOVNEY, Chairman.

FRANK W. HOW[illegible], Secretary.

A New York anarchist died in a bath tub last week. Why not sentence the whole party to a bath? It certainly will not be regarded as inhuman and may save us trouble. If it does not kill, it may reform.

The action of the governor of New Hampshire in vetoing the Boston and Maine railway bill, [illegible] by the legislature of that state, is sure to meet with popular approval in that state. The evidences of the use of corrupt means in securing the passage of the bill were so manifest that the governor could not avoid vetoing the bill.

The first effect of the purchase of the B. & O. telegraph line by the Western Union company is a raise in the rate of messages from New York to Chicago. The rate of the B. & O. line was 15 cents for ten words and the new rate adopted [illegible] will be 50 cents for the same [illegible]. The Western Union company has only to continue this policy in order to bring about a postal telegraph system throughout the country.

[illegible] an interview with [illegible] M. Depew, president of the New York Central railroad, was telegraphed to New York from St. Louis, in which he was reported to have predicted a panic. In five hours on the day this was [illegible] the Vanderbilt stocks declined [illegible] Later in the day Mr. Depew denied the accuracy of the report. As the report was only based on a newspaper interview, it is hard to understand how it could have had such an effect. It is only evidence of the feverishness of the market.

The [illegible] people in Newark, N. [illegible] mayor. It is a [illegible] offensive to the law and order [illegible]. It was accomplished by running [illegible] prohibition candidate when there was no chance to elect him. There was a choice in the only two who had a chance. The one not elected was the [illegible] and [illegible] who [illegible] held a high [illegible] and whose character was a pledge that the laws would be executed. Such prohibition [illegible] are [illegible] almost as dangerous as [illegible].

General Clark of Missouri, the clerk of the house of representatives, states that the [illegible] democratic clear majority over all in the present house will be ten and it may be fourteen. There are four vacancies, two in New York, one in Rhode Island and one in [illegible]. If Rhode Island elects a republican [illegible] the vote by states on the choice of the next president, if the election should be thrown into the house, would stand: republican 20—just enough to elect; democrats 17, and New Hampshire tied. The democrats in the last house had [illegible] majority, while the vote by states stood democratic 19, republicans 15 [illegible]. When the last house was elected the republicans had full control of the administrative offices of the government, while the present house was chosen after the democrats had been two years in control. According to this the possession of power and patronage are not the only things which make a party strong.

The English government cannot much longer [illegible] the force of enforcing [illegible]. One of the most [illegible] prosecutions we have read was telegraphed from New York Herald Saturday. Some twenty persons were arrested in Wexford county for intimidation. [illegible] a young girl, Miss [illegible]. The report of the [illegible] story: [illegible] Mr. McLeod [illegible].

[illegible] young and [illegible] girl. We [illegible] to send her to jail, because girls once sent to [illegible] strong adhering to them through life.

Mr. Leamy, of counsel—Under this act it leaves no stigma to go to prison, it is an honor. [Applause in court.]

The magistrate—What we suggest is that she enter into her own recognizance to [illegible] good conduct.

Mrs. Lawler—I will not give security at all. [Loud and prolonged applause.]

The magistrate—Close the court at once.

The police [illegible] carrying out this order and the scene for the time was one of the greatest confusion.

The magistrate—We have done all we could to relieve you, Miss Lawler, from [illegible] to give any undertaking we must send you to jail for fourteen days, with [illegible].

Miss Lawler—[illegible] Very well. I will go [illegible].

Mr. Leamy—[illegible] a girl like that to jail [illegible].

Mr. McM[illegible] for the crown—I could not consent [illegible] on behalf of the attorney general, and I have no authority to consent to that. The sentence has been pronounced.

Mr. Leamy—[illegible] would [illegible] on her in jail [illegible] allowed to herd with criminals and the worst characters [illegible].

The magistrate—It is her own lookout.

Mr. Leamy—I hope you have learned a lesson as to the spirit of the people.

JEDGE WAXEM ABROAD

He and Mandy at Potsdam, Near Berlin—Palace of Frederick the Great.

[illegible]

POTSDAM, Sept. 21.—We are at [illegible] out here at Potsdam [illegible] country town near Berlin, where Frederick the Great used to come to [illegible] and [illegible] of his [illegible]. [illegible] lived [illegible] with his [illegible] eyes and went to sleep forever. I went to look at his coffin [illegible] the same [illegible] here [illegible] it gives me a better impression of Kaiser than I had before, for that ain't a lot of fine [illegible] about the place, and the coffin [illegible] more [illegible] as fancy as what [illegible] gate [illegible] the palace [illegible] [illegible] planes [illegible] crowed up with [illegible] and [illegible] fancy farmin [illegible].

When I [illegible] Berlin [illegible] I do my [illegible] have [illegible] [illegible] vote [illegible] and I [illegible] ments and [illegible].

"As [illegible] the nat[illegible] pened to sit in [illegible] back view looks like a street [illegible] the Fourteenth century, and the building used to be a factory of some kind. The front is of stone, four stories high, and faces on the street like a business house or a hotel, and don't look [illegible] it is new. It reminds me a good deal of some politicians I know, this is all [illegible] to look at on the outside, but won't [illegible] approach from the back gate. Inside the building is considerable better, and [illegible] do for a state capital for [illegible] that had been in the [illegible] and party too long. The [illegible] was covered with yaller leather. The [illegible] war [illegible] enough to [illegible] and the other apartments war [illegible] to meet the simple wants of a rational legislator, who hadn't been used to a seat in the American congress.

As ushule in these countries, the people air the last and the least, and the [illegible] are mighty poor. In every particular, though, the Germans have better quarters for legislatin' in than the English house of commons.

I set especially about Bismarck, who I consider is the connectin' link of the German confederation, and sot for a brief space of time in his chair, which is in a rostrum runnin' around just below the president's desk, and is similar to the chairs of the members and not overly comfortible, like most [illegible] chairs which ware [illegible], and has a tendency to perspirate a statesman [illegible] desk of [illegible] stretches out his legs and goes to sleep when a feller member is makin' a dull speech, which frequently happens.

To git into the [illegible] costs about fifteen cents, but you don't have to buy a ticket at the box office like you do at the capital in Vienna. As the legislaters don't git any [illegible], I spose they divide up the gate money to help pay election expenses.

I didn't see the kaiser, for the old [illegible], who is gettin' mighty feeble, was away at a waterin' place [illegible] picter shop and book store in Berlin I seen [illegible] one to a dozen like [illegible] of him, and [illegible], and it seemed to me that he must be as popular in the German capital as Mrs. Cleveland is in ourn.

One day as Mandy and me was walkin' over in the ground of the [illegible], what a king used to live, we come across, quite unexpected, the English church, and Mandy wanted to go in and see what it looked like.

The kaiser give the [illegible] how it come to be in the palace grounds, and the crown princess has a pew that, which also makes it better. The [illegible] showed [illegible] his remarks [illegible] that [illegible] divided with the English [illegible] and he pointed out the pew of the Hon. George H. Pendleton, our minister to Germany. I knowed George was a good kind of a man, but I didn't expect to find his pew in the front row, mighty near under the very drippins of the sanctuary, but that it was, and the janitor said he sot in it every Sunday [illegible] across the [illegible] the English minister, and next to him, in a recess, with a special entrance for royalty, is the pew of the crown princess [illegible] with her girls, of the [illegible] but plane, and has got a [illegible]. Some of the seats has got [illegible] ings into them, but the crown princess hain't a seat in hern, and says she won't have any till every seat in the house has one, so that rich and pore can be alike. I said that [illegible] sentiment and [illegible] princess, but [illegible] like what was in the church could be bought for every seat for a [illegible] and she thought the [illegible] ought to show her faith by her works and pay that much [illegible] finally, somethin more comfortable to set on than hard boards. I wouldn't be surprised if Mandy wasn't more'n [illegible] as [illegible]. Another thing that seemed to me not to be quite as meek and [illegible] book and [illegible] up in ivory and [illegible] and printed finer than [illegible] I got when I made my first [illegible] the political arena. She [illegible] but the Bible society presented [illegible] them, and that don't make [illegible] better as [illegible] the [illegible].

[illegible] Brandenburg gate, [illegible] what he was there for [illegible] nobody but royalty could [illegible] and [illegible] rights of the crown [illegible] up the [illegible].

Richmond of this city, succeeded in obtaining a new trial on error, besides securing a change of venue and, while opinion is much divided, it is thought that Sparrow is not without hope. There will be from twenty to thirty witnesses in this case, and they will come from all parts of the country, Texas being strongly represented. The prosecution will be persistent and the defense most earnest, and no doubt the case will be the most interesting during the term of the court.

Reasons Why You Should

PURCHASE OF

The Edward Ferris Dry Goods Co.

O

Their stock is new, the old having been sold at the great "Closing Out Sale." The prices are from 10 to 40 per cent less than same kind can be found elsewhere.

Mr. Ferris is in New York and Philadelphia, daily picking up BARGAINS. If you want to save money you can't afford to purchase before looking at our stock. New Goods are arriving daily and being marked at surprisingly Low Prices.

SILKS, VELVETS. DRESS GOODS.

We have about thirty different shades of Plain, Plaided or Striped Velvets and Plushes. Customers tell us our [illegible] quality cannot be matched for less than $2.50 [illegible] We'd like to call your attention to some fine French Dress Patterns. There is an assortment of 20 [illegible] ONLY of a kind, a fact that will be appreciated by most ladies. Last but not least let us whisper that Mr. Ferris bought them so they could be sold for a little over half the usual prices. Cold type cannot portray the beauties of the fabrics or [illegible] Particularly [illegible] Henriettas, Camel's Hair Cheviots, etc., well worth $10.00, but we want them to go quick and they will be marked [illegible]

Robes with Braided Embroidery $7.00, cheap would be at $12.00. Camel's Hair Combination Robes $10.00, New Yorkers buy them quick at $15.00. Now come the [illegible]

French Velvet Dress Patterns.

One quality at $20.00, the Eastern price was $40.00.

One quality at $[illegible], the Eastern price was $50.00.

Rich are they and a shame to sell so Low, but go they must [illegible] create demand.

Haven't much more room, but we'll write a word about

Hosiery and Underwear.

Four cases of Hosiery received today. The prices range from 10c to $1.00. We know they are marked 25 per cent under current prices. [illegible] at the elegant assortment of 25c Hosiery for Ladies, Gents and Children. Now, Gents' Underwear can be bought as low as 25c. We have the best Underwear for Ladies and Gents at 50c ever offered in Colorado—75c has been the price. Our Scarlet Underwear for $1.00 is really worth $1.37 and our $1.37½ quality [illegible] cannot be duplicated for less than $2.00. Camel's Hair Underwear for Ladies, Gents and Children. Will give more particulars next week. Our store is overrunning with New Goods.
